

Wilsonart Virtual Design Library

Wilsonart's Virtual Design Library was created with one purpose in mind: Offer the design community more inspirational design choice in the HPL market, while not compromising the quality or the service you expect from the world leader in the category.

The VDL collection is not dependent on whatever designs happen to roll out of the far ends of the world. Our collections are curated from our own designers in conjunction with the design community. That means on-trend design that is instantly relevant in any space.

It's easy to see, easy to order, and easy to use. There are no minimums OR maximums, so you have the peace of mind to know Wilsonart has you covered.... in style.
