

VENEER GRADE WALNUT

Walnut veneer is light grayish brown to chocolate brown in color. It has a fine to moderately coarse texture, medium porous to uniform grain, and finishes nicely with stain or natural clear coat to preserve the warmth and color.

ATTRIBUTES

- ✓ Highest yielding Walnut on the market
- ✓ 90/90 or better heartwood content
- ✓ 50-60% of all pieces are clear both faces
- ✓ Virtually no wane
- ✓ Extremely wide average widths
- ✓ High % of long lengths
- ✓ Stress free Walnut
- ✓ Exclusive to Hartzell

COMMON USES

- Architectural millwork
- Furniture
- Cabinets
- Floors
- Paneling
- Doors
- ..and more!

PROPERTIES

PHYSICAL

- Tough hardwood of medium density
- Moderate bending and crushing strengths
- Low stiffness

WORKING

- Works easily with hand and machine tools, and nails, screws, and glues
- Holds paint and stain very well and is readily polished
- Dries slowly, and care is needed to avoid kiln degrade
- Good dimensional stability

 Interested in Being Contacted by a Rep?

Click Here To Learn More